

Sherman and Kay Critser
Career Missionaries – Africa

Missions Focus:

- Serving the church in Cote d'Ivoire through leadership training at West African Bible Institute (IBAO)
- Directing TEE (theological education by extension)
- Participating in a wide variety of ministries, including leadership development, relief work, church planting, and construction

It is also their desire to see the work of the Church of God spread throughout the rest of Africa. The Church of God exists in less than a third of the countries on the continent of Africa and the needs are great.

Kay began her ministry in Kenya, East Africa, where she served for six years. Sherman received his call to missions through three Anderson University Tri-S trips to Latin and Central America. As a couple, they began their mission's career in 1979 in Tanzania. Over the course of the next twenty-six years, they lived and worked in five African countries. Sherman and Kay served as regional coordinators for Africa from 2005 until 2011.

Sherman and Kay both graduated from Anderson University School of Theology. Sherman received his doctor of ministry degree from Anderson University School of Theology in May 2005.

Sherman and Kay have two children, Ryan (wife Anna) and daughter Carrie, who is a special assignment missionary to Central Asia.
